Beatlemania at the Library

Hartford, Connecticut (May 14, 2013) — You'll love this yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah: Join musician and teacher Aaron Krerowicz at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, June 4, to explore the music of The Beatles in a special 90-minute presentation spanning the 1960s. "The Beatles: Band of the Sixties" begins with the band's seminal visits to Hamburg, through the Beatlemania years, and concludes with Abbey Road. The lecture will be supplemented by audio clips of music and excerpts from interviews with the band members.

Krerowicz's presentation in the Center for Contemporary Culture at the Downtown Library will be supplemented by audio clips of music and excerpts from interviews with the band members.

An enthusiastic teacher and avid Beatles scholar, Aaron Krerowicz graduated from Butler University in Indianapolis with a bachelor's degree in Music Theory and Composition; a master's degree in Music Composition from Boston University, and a graduate artist diploma, also in Music Composition, from the Hartt School at the University of Hartford. More information about Aaron's background is available at www.aaronkrerowicz.com. To read his in-depth blog on The Beatles, please see <http://www.aaronkrerowicz.com/beatles-blog.html>

The presentation is free, no registration is required, and all are welcome.
